

Annual Siloam Springs Heritage Festival June 27, 2009

hosted by the Siloam Springs Museum

This is the fourth year that the Siloam Springs Annual Heritage Festival is taking place. Although it draws hundreds of people to our beautiful historic downtown area and increases our attractiveness as a tourist and vendor destination, we have not yet felt the need to ask for funding assistance from the Siloam Springs City Council to help with the operating costs of hosting this event, which is free to the public. The generous financial and in-kind support of businesses, organizations and individuals in Siloam Springs, Rogers, and other Northwest Arkansas locations has, thus far, made it possible for us to cover our own operating expenses.

Please help us to once again to make the Siloam Springs Heritage Festival an exciting, family-friendly, educational and fun event that lets us show off our beautiful historic downtown and give residents and visitors a fascinating glimpse into the colorful history and traditional lifeways of the region.
